Dear Brother Hill:

The Elders of this congregation are interested in having you preach a series of sermons here May 5-10, 1963 or May 3-8, 1964. You will notice that these dates would include Sunday through Friday night.

Through Brother Elmer Howell, our Educational Director, we have learned of your good work and enjoy your writing in the various periodicals.

We would appreciate hearing from you some time in the near future and will then make positive confirmation if you are available either of these dates.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
