Dear Brethren:

The Elders of this congregation have asked me to express their appreciation to Brother Ernest Stewart for his excellent presentation of the work and needs in Jerusalem. We are deeply interested in that work and offer Brethren Stewart and Henley our sincere prayers.

Due to other commitments, a 50 % increase in our budget for 1962, and a $380 deficit in our spending fund, the Elders have decided against any capital outlay for the purchase of property in Jerusalem. We extend our sincere regrets for being unable to support this excellent move.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
