Mr. and Mrs. Glen Figgins
1110 Grand Avenue
Caruthersville, Mo.

Dear Folks:

My wife and I thoroughly enjoyed our visit in your home. The meal was excellent and my wife still talks about your unusual salad.

I was happy to have the opportunity of becoming acquainted with your children. There can be no greater reward than the knowledge which you have of the faithfulness of your children to the Lord.

The meeting at Caruthersville was a very pleasant one due to the kindness and hospitality which you extended to me.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
