Mr. Willard Kaiser
P. O. Box 121
Flatwoods, Kentucky

Dear Brother Kaiser:

It was a pleasure to receive your card concerning a proposed meeting with the Ironton congregation in 1965. Unfortunately, I have no room for such an effort in that year. I will be happy to come during 1967 in any month except February, March, and August if the brethren there so desire.

I would appreciate hearing from you in the near future due to scheduling that I am now doing for that year.

I thoroughly enjoyed my visit in the tri-cities and was favorable impressed by the work being done in that area. I would consider it a pleasure to work with you brethren in a gospel meeting.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
