Dear Brother Thompson:

Your recent letter was welcomed and enjoyed. I am happy to learn that you have talked with Brother Goodpasture and that he has indicated more interest in your comments on the Revelation.

Your letter however is too flattering in the request you make for my assistance in revising the book. I will be happy to do what I can and I am now in the process of reading and studying the book very closely. Two graduate classes at Tennessee Tech and American History class, which I am teaching, preclude my giving much time to this project until the middle of December. I hope then to be able to come up with something that will impress Brother Goodpasture and cause him to want to republish it.

My kindest regards to you and your wife. Please feel free to keep me informed of any developments.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
