Mr. W. J. Holloday
Fayette
Alabama

Dear Brother Holloday:

We have received your reservation for $5,000 of our 6% church bonds to be issued within the next three months. I believe that we will have enough left to allow you to purchase an additional $5,000, if you so desire. Since these reservations are not completely binding, you might want to fill out the enclosed form indicating the date on which you might desire the additional $5,000 and showing your choices of maturity dates. This will aid you and us in planning for this issue but will not completely bind you if some question still exist about the additional amount.

Brother Wesley Flatt and others send you their best regards and remember your interest in the work of the Church when you lived in Cookeville.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
