Dear Pierce:

I was happy to receive your letter and learn of the proposed activities of CHILD, Inc., for this summer. I appreciate the invitation to work with the camp as a Bible teacher and would like nothing better.

I must regretfully decline the invitation due to a heavy schedule, our own local Bible Camp, and the possibility of attending ACC for six weeks. I would like to suggest that you contact Stanley J.A. McInery, Livingston, Tennessee. Brother and Sister McInery are available and I am sure would enjoy working for a week at the camp.

We have advertised the camp in our local bulletin and hope to help in any way possible.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
