Dear Brother Bilak:

Your letters of appreciation for the reception and contributions which this congregation offered you recently have been received and are appreciated. The group here is always interested in good work and especially good work of the kind which you are doing.

It was a joy for us to have you. Many members of my Bible class are still talking about your excellent testimony and others continue to mention your visit and presentation of your work on Sunday evening.

We send you and your family our best wishes and prayers for even greater ministry to the iron curtain countries.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
