Mr. Ray Chester
4801 16th Street, N.W.
Washington 11, D. C.

Dear Ray:

I have an application pending for the chaplaincy in the Tennessee National Guard. You are aware, of course, of the needed ecclesiastes endorsement which needs to come from you. I have received other statements of endorsement from H. A. Dixon, the Eldership where I have preached, and other brotherhood leaders. The application has been temporarily halted in Nashville because of a failure to have your endorsement. I am enclosing the pertinent instructions and respectfully request that you attend to this matter as soon as possible. Please send your endorsement to me and I will forward it to the proper people in Nashville.

We send you our very best regards.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
