Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown
3801 S. 20th Street
Abilene, Texas

Dear Folks:

One of the first families to invite me into their home was the Walter Brown family. Your kindness and warmth deeply impressed me on my first Sunday with the Highland congregation. There is no real secret to Highland's great work outside the unusual quality of its member families.

The opportunity to be in your home was especially appreciated by me. You welcomed me as if we had all been friends for years. This kind of treatment is extremely unusual and did not go unnoticed by me. Your every expression of concern and your repeated hospitality was gratefully accepted and is warmly remembered.

I send Martha and Mike my best regards. I hope that both of you are in excellent health and that everything is going great with the church.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
