Ashland, Kentucky

Dear Brother and Sister Ramey:

The work at Skyline Drive will be a continuing success because of families like yours. I deeply appreciate the interest and the concern which you continued to show throughout our recent meeting.

It was a pleasure to visit in your home and to enjoy your excellent food and christian hospitality. John's willingness to entertain me during the week was a delight.

I send you all my very best regards. It was a pleasure to become acquainted with you and I look forward to more associations in the future.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
