Dear Folks:

Sue and I appreciated your Christmas letter and were happy to learn that you and all are in good health. Hearing from you again made the greeting even more enjoyable and rewarding.

We still remember with gratitude the kindnesses which you extended to us during the Abilene visit. It is our prayer and wish that 1964 will hold many wonderful opportunities for your dedicated talents to be used in the Lord's service.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
