Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moore
1307 Ramey Street
Ashland, Kentucky

Dear Brother and Sister Moore:

My recent meeting at Skyline Drive was extremely enjoyable to me. Not the least of the reasons for this was the warm and hospitable reception which you gave me in your home. The visit and the meal were extremely pleasant and helped make my week enjoyable.

It was a pleasure to become acquainted with you after knowing and appreciating your son as I did. I am convinced that your interest in the church will cause you to continue to be effective servants of the Lord.

Please accept my deep gratitude for all of your kindnesses and especially for the two books which you gave me. They will be treasured additions to my library.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
