Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Womack
409 Wisdom Avenue
Jackson, Tennessee

Dear Brother and Sister Womack:

I am deeply indebted to the Elders of the Skyline congregation for the opportunity to come and work with you in our recent gospel meeting. I don't know of any reception that has been more hospitable than was the one from the Skyline group. There is no doubt in my mind about the future of the congregation with such a dedicated Eldership and with such interested membership.

Sue and I thoroughly enjoyed our Sunday afternoon with you. We were so happy to become acquainted with John and Annettee. Please give them our very best regards.

I appreciate the opportunity of having lunch with Brother Womack especially knowing of his responsibilities and duties.

We send you our very best wishes and desires to work with you again in the future.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
