Mr. Marvin H. Wiseman
1126 N. Bancroft Street
Indianapolis, Indiana

Dear Brother Wiseman:

Again I am flattered by the kind invitation from the Irbington Elders to come and work with you. I was extremely interested in the purchase of a tract of land and in your plans for that tract. You are definitely thinking along proper lines and I would commend you for it.

Our work is in such a condition here that it would be impossible for me to leave. I do deeply appreciate the invitation. I hope that the brethren there will continue to keep me in their thoughts. I will be happy to be of service in any way at any time.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

I am sorry to report that I know of no preacher now desiring to make a change.
