Mr. Marshall Keeble
Nashville Christian Institute
801 24th Avenue, North
Nashville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Keeble:

We are all happy to know that your recent trip to Africa was successful. Our prayers for your safety and well-being were answered.

Even though this letter comes somewhat late, I do want to express my appreciation to you for your participation in the recent area wide meeting that was held in Cookeville on behalf of the Institute. Enclosed you will find two pictures taken at that time of myself, Brother Glenn Killom, Brother Cato, and yourself.

Our local photographer, Brother Hoke White, thought that you would enjoy these pictures. We send you our very best regards.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
