Dear Lane:

It is always a joy to be with you and to work with you. I was pleased to learn that you would be in Washington last week and was happy to see you again.

I hope you didn't mind the mirthful ribbing which I gave you about your very useful and highly appreciated gift to me. Sue and I have had some disturbance about whether it will remain at home in the reading room or will be kept in my office. You know needless to say that such an aid will be and is constantly of use to me. I would like to thank the Chronicle for the RandMcNally Road Atlas.

Sue, Mary Beth, John Allen Jr, and I send you and your family our very best wishes at this Holiday season.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
