The Honorable Joe L. Evins
Member of Congress
House Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Congressman Evins:

The Broad Street Church of Christ would like to express its deep gratitude for your invaluable help offered us recently. As the result of material supplied by your office, our general planning committee was able to draw some realistic conclusions about the future of our city and the future of this congregation.

There is no way to express our deep loss of Richard Mitchell. He did an excellent job in organizing and properly steering this committee during its formative days. We all know that he will be an asset to your work in Washington. Again let me express our deep gratitude for your help.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
