Dear Brother Choate:

I was pleased to read recently of your new work via the Christian Chronicle. I had followed with interest your attempts to enter India and was disappointed to learn that you could not enter that country. We send you our very best wishes and cordial prayers for a successful work. Men of your courage and ability are not often found.

I recognize that a mailing address in the United States is still being used for the Quarterly. I am writing to inquire if there is anything that I can do to insure the Quarterly's continuation other than my regular contribution as staff member. If there is something I can do, please feel free to call on me. I have recently been added to the staff of the Gospel Advocate.

We are appreciative of your devotion and send our very best wishes for all you and your family.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
