Oak Ridge, Tennessee

Dear Gordon:

It was an extreme pleasure to visit with you a few days ago. One of the most encouraging and inspiring parts of my work as a gospel preacher is the opportunity to be with men like yourself.

In a day when many of our preachers are sadly limited in their vision and selfish in their lack of concern for activities other than their own, it is refreshing to see the way you responded to becoming a part of the "Herald of Truth family".

Your kind reception and your genuine hospitality was deeply appreciated. Give this unusual work every attention that your time and schedule will allow. If you have not already been contacted you will be hearing from the "Herald of Truth" office and Mr. Wayman Wilkerson in the near future.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
