Dear Brother Sanders:

In checking our proposed gospel meetings, we find that our record suggest a meeting with you for September 5-11, 1966. We do not have this meeting officially scheduled according to our records.

Would you please check your schedule concerning this matter. If possible could we ask that such a meeting be transferred to the Spring of 1967 preferably the first full week in May. We can well appreciate any problems this may cause and will understand if you still prefer to come in September. We will await your reply.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
