Dear Don:

I enjoy receiving your weekly bulletin, Truth. It is always with profit that I read the excellent articles which you write.

In the October 20 number you wrote an article about the United Fund Campaign. I am sure you checked closely into the Gadsden Fund about the support of religious charities and groups. It might interest you to know that in Cookeville where we are in our second year with this campaign that the Board of Directors in setting up the fund specifically excluded secondary agencies with the nature of those just suggested. This was done at the instigation of Christians in our community. I knew that you would appreciate knowing that in some areas the United Fund does not necessitate supporting such things as indicated in your article. We send you our best wishes and hope that your work is going well.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
