Dear Don and Marian:

Sue and I were thrilled to receive your greeting card and note. The note you wrote was especially enjoyed and appreciated.

We hope that all in your family are doing nicely. I am sure I would not know the children. Since October, we have had the joy of another child though he will have to overcome the handicap of being John Allen Jr.

I know your work there is highly rewarding and understand that you are doing a great job. We thank you for remembering us and send all of you our best regards.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
