Dear Sir:

The annual Career Day at Tennessee Tech, March 18, will offer an opportunity for me to counsel with young people about religious vocations. I would appreciate receiving promotional materials, introductory pamphlets, and any other information that you would deem suitable for high school seniors contemplating religious work of any nature.

Many of this group will be interested in non-preaching roles. Information geared to these activities would be extremely helpful. If there is available a film or filmstrip that would be suitable for this group, we would be glad to bare the rental expenses and would appreciate receiving such immediately.

Your kind and prompt attention to these requests will be extremely beneficial to us.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chaik
