Mr. Cornell Hayes
Beech Bethany Church of Christ
Celina, Tennessee

Dear Brother Hayes:

It is my understanding that I have a meeting scheduled with the Beech Bethany congregation for July 16-24 of this year. I regret to have to ask to be relieved of this obligation.

The Elders of this congregation have severely limited my outside activities. It will be necessary for me to be away five weeks this summer not including meetings that I am to hold. Because of this situation which has just become a reality, I must beg the brethren there to answer my request.

I can highly recommend a substitute, Brother Robert Hutcheson of Cookeville. He is an outstanding young preacher with great ability and good understanding of the Bible. Brother Hutcheson would be in a position to hold this meeting at the same dates and would do an outstanding job.

Please express my regrets for having to make this request to the brethren there. Let me know of their decision as soon as possible.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
