The Honorable Albert Gore
Senator from Tennessee
Senate Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Gore:

Your were extremely kind to allow Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mitchell and myself some of your valuable time last week during my visit to Washington. It was a pleasure to visit with you and to talk with you about some of the pressing problems vacing our government.

Your autographed picture which I requested has been received and is being framed. Soon it will hang in my office as an expression of my interest in and approval of many of the things for which you stand.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
