Dear John Allen:

That was a wonderful planning report that you sent me. I am saving it to show to our elders and I believe it will inspire them to do more.

Brother J. D. Thomas has written me from Abilene asking me to make a speech about congregational development and work—I surely want to use some of these good plans of yours in that speech, and may have in my manuscript the fact that you have such a final report. Would this be appropriate—or are you afraid it might run into too much of a chore? You can let me know your own preference in that—and if you prefer I say nothing about writing you for a copy I surely will abide by your wishes.

Thank you so much for giving me mine and for the excellency of the service that you are performing for our Lord.

Cordially yours,

Jim Bill McInteer
