ASSIGNMENT FOR POWER FOR TODAY

Deadline: MAR 4 1964

POWER FOR TODAY, the daily devotional guide, is being widely used by thousands of families and individuals. It is our earnest prayer, as it goes into its fourth year of publication, that its usefulness may be increased, that more family worship may be encouraged, that more individuals will take time for daily Bible study and prayer. If you have contributed by your writings in the past, we are grateful.

Would you please write on the enclosed copy sheet an article on any helpful Bible theme of your choosing?

1. Not more than 200 words in the body of the article.

2. Do apply scripture to practical everyday life.

3. Use an illustration where possible.

4. If it is suitable, the articles may be written in the first person, since this makes it easier for the reader to apply it to his own life.

5. Remember that many of your readers are young.

6. Do not abbreviate scripture references. (I John 3:4)

7. The scripture to be read should be between 6 and 14 verses.

8. The Bible thought may be a verse from the passage to be read or any other on the theme selected

9. The hymn should be fairly familiar.

10. Pray with us that your article will be the means of increasing devotion to God and His Word in the hearts of many readers.
MEMO:

TO: POWER Writers

FROM: Jim Bill McInteer

Helen and Norvel Young, the able co-editors of POWER FOR TODAY have asked that I guest edit the May-June issue of the magazine. This assignment is pleasantly accepted because it gives me the chance to ask for the usage of your talents.

I would like us to do an issue on Kings and Queens of the Bible. You will find your assignment identified with a red check mark listed below. Attached is the style and instruction sheet to further assist you in doing a good job. OUR DEADLINE IS MARCH 4th. PLEASE GET ME YOUR COPY.

On some of the assignments there are many scriptures you can use on a cross reference, on some there are few! Develop the story in your own words, present a lesson that a whole family will find profitable as from God's word they seek "power for today." Use your liberties in research — write that good article I know you can.

We are deeply appreciative of your friendship and service in the kingdom. We ask your full, immediate and able aid in making this a "royal" issue.
