Dear John Allen:

I just came from the church building where I had seen a copy of the January 28 issue of the Cookeville Citizen and, of course, was very pleased to note when I got to the office that I had a copy of the paper and a note from you.

May I extend congratulations from all of our people here and especially am I proud of the honor for you. We need more men who will take leadership in the community. I think this is a part of what Jesus meant when He said, "Let your light so shine that men may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven."

John Allen, not only have you already made a name for yourself but your future is so very bright. The only word of warning I have is to keep your feet on the ground and don't let it ruin you as it has some of our preachers. In the public relations field the warning is expressed like this: "Be careful lest you begin to believe your publicity."

It is a real honor to work and be associated with you.

Cordially,

James W. Nichols
