FREED-HARDEMAN COLLEGE

G. K. WALLACE, EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

HENDERSON, TENNESSEE

February 12, 1963

Mr. John Allen Chalk
P. O. Box 474
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear brother Chalk:

Would it be possible for you to get together all of the preachers in your vicinity, including Paul Hall down at Sparta, and all the elders that you can get to come to meet with you and me at the Broad Street church at 7:30 in the evening on Friday, March 8. Tell them that this will be a planning meeting only, and that no collections will be taken at this meeting.

Since time is the essence of our work and if I can be of help in this way would you please confirm this at your very earliest convenience.

Fraternally yours,

G. K. Wallace

Executive Assistant to the President
