Dear John:
Just a note: it was real good to hear from you: glad to know all is well with you good people.

Yes, I am sure you are busy ... real busy ... congratulations for your new work with the H. of T. Our prayers to God will be for you to have wisdom and strength in all this, as well as your other work. Such men as you is the strength of the church here on God's great earth, and will be those who set the destiny of God's eternity. God be with you.

You can count on it, we will not "count you out" in our Appalachian Mts. work: I will correspond with you later in the year, and you will just have you "slip off" and preach for us on two nights, during the week, in the tent: we don't want to get the elders all riled-up against you, there.

Remember us in your prayers: we love you and always count you among our very dear ones.

Love and Respect,

E.C. Maynard.
