Dear Brother Chalk:

One good deed deserves another, so since I recommended you to the brethren here, I was wondering if you have opportunity would you recommend me to some congregation in need of a full time preacher. John, we like the church here and the weather, but it is so far from Tennessee. I thought, perhaps, with your contacts you may have an opportunity to recommend me. Being this far away I naturally lose contact with the churches there and they probably feel that I am too far away to invite. I am interested in Tennessee, Alabama or Georgia. You understand that I can't accept just anything, but something you feel is worthwhile I will appreciate a word of recommendation.

My wife has been so homesick and this makes my work more difficult. Please don't mention my letter to any of the folks there.

Hope your work is still growing and that you may continue there for many years to come.

Respectfully:

Charles G. Lemons.
