Mr. John A. Chalk
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear John:

It was good to have seen you at the Lectureship last week; however, I regret we did not have longer to visit.

Enclosed are some facts about the work which the elders will no doubt want to look over. If there are any questions about the work, please let me know.

I do not know just when a trip down that way will be planned as we must first prepare brochures, plan a schedule and make many other preparations. As I told you, however, a trip to Cookeville can be arranged at any time if the elders are willing to give me an audience. In fact, I would much rather have an opportunity to meet with them before planning a more extensive trip, that is, if they are interested. I am sure you will know which to suggest.

Thanks again for your interest. May God richly bless you, your family and the work of Christ there.

In Christian Love,

Charles L. Brown
