Mr. John A. Chalk
Cookeville Tenn:

Dear Brother Chalk:

In reply to your letter of March 14th, 1963, in which you express your desire to be re-leased from your appointment with the Stone Church, We have been making ~~some~~ investigation about getting some one to hold our Meeting before giving you our answer, We have been able to employ Brother Denton to hold our meeting in July, we regrett very much to have to cancl~~e~~ our appointment with you, we were looking farward to a fine meeting with you, but, we don,t wont to work a hardship on any one, We wish you much success in your work.

Yours very Truly
