Mr. John Allen Chalk,
542 North Washington Ave.,
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Chalk:

I am also extremely sorry that a misunderstanding or rather misinterpretation of what was actually said has arisen between us. I humbly trust that you will forgive and overlook these mistakes of mine. I seem the "world's worst" when it comes to making mistakes.

As far as I am concerned the matter is dropped and I trust that such will never arise in the future. You have been most helpful to me and for that I am eternally grateful. Thanks for your wonderful attitude in dealing so patiently with me, and I do, oh so much, want to preserve the proper spirit of brotherly kindness, "helpfulness and understanding."

I had already heard from a friend that the Green's Lake Road church in Chattanooga needed a preacher and have written them a letter. Perhaps I will hear from them this week. The Dayton, Ohio work sounds good, too. I have always liked that part of the country. It seems I have heard that that is where you once lived. A good sister, Marilyn Kobe, now of Detroit, told me that she had known you there.

Thanks again for your nice explanatory letter and for the churches you mentioned.

In boundless Christian love,

Bruce R. Curd

P.S. Lord willing I will preach in Warren, Michigan, a suburb of Detroit on March 29.
