Dear Brother Chalk:

Let me express to you once again my appreciation for the fine lessons you presented at Highland. Would that we could hear you more often. We are thankful to our Lord for your coming our way, and that we had the privilege of fellowship with you, even though it was for only a short time.

As agreed in our conversation, I am writing with regard to your being with us in a gospel meeting in the fall of 1968. We feel that through you, God's servant, He can build us up spiritually, while at the same time, teach many lost souls the way of life.

May God bless you and your good family richly as you continue to serve Him so faithfully.

In Christian love,

A. L. Haddox
