Dear Brother Chalk:

Recently you were one of the speakers for the Lectureship at David Lipscomb College. Brother J. M. Patterson, one of our elders, and Brother E. R. Harper were in your audience during one of those lectures. Both were very impressed with the lesson you presented and your ability to present it.

It is the understanding of Brother Patterson and Brother Harper that you will be here in Abilene Christian College this summer doing some work in college. Our regular minister, Brother Mid McKnight, will be gone for the three summer months. One of our deacons, Brother James Walter Nichols, will be filling the pulpit this summer while Mid is gone. Brother Nichols is to be away in a meeting the Sundays of July 21 and 28.

Brother Chalk, the elders at Highland would count it a great honor to have you fill our pulpit both morning and evening of these two Sundays. We will be anxiously awaiting your reply and may our Lord continue to bless you in your service to Him is our prayer.

In Christian love,

A. L. Haddox
