Dear John Allen:

Our hearty congratulations to you, your wife and children for your recent honor. I include your good wife because I know that you know without a good wife to back us up in times of discouragement, we could never make it.

I'm sure you realize, also, that through achievements such as this many doors of opportunity will open for you to do additional work for the Lord.

We love you and appreciate you for your labor of love and our humble prayer is that God will bless you with many fruitful years in service to Him.

In Christian love,

A. L. Haddox

PS We had a wonderful day at Highland yesterday. Mid preached yesterday morning on "The End of The World." We had 91 responses. Last night he preached on the "Judgement Day" and we had 26 responses for a total of 117, seven of which were baptisms.
