Dear Paul:

I inquired the other day about your plans to move to Abilene. Needless to say, we are all thrilled about the prospects of your coming, and look forward to your participation in the life and work of the Highland church. The men on the Herald of Truth staff make many valuable contributions to the work of this congregation. This is one of the many reasons we feel that your coming is going to be a great blessing.

My family and I have been reviewing very carefully our financial situation. We have come to the conclusion that if someone would like to buy our house, we would consider selling it and moving into more economically feasible quarters. Our home is in Radford Hills and has four bedrooms, a separate dining room, living room, den and kitchen. It has a two car garage, completely enclosed. It is built on a plan that we have thoroughly enjoyed.

If you and your wife are seriously interested in a house, you might want to look at it. Even though we lament the possibility of having to part with it, because it has been such a joy to us, we nevertheless feel that it might be good judgment, in view of our financial obligations, to sell the house if you are interested. You and your wife might want to look at it on your next trip to Abilene.

We send you our best personal regards for you and your family, and prayers for your continued effectiveness in the mass media ministry.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
