Dear Mrs. Liebert:

I regret the inconvenience caused you by Mr. Charles Stovall's returned check. Mr. Stovall may not have had time to reply to your letter as he is an extremely busy man.

The enclosed check should allow you to straighten up your books and prevent any further inconvenience to you. Should Mr. Stovall send payment for his returned check, you may consider my check a contribution to what you are doing at the Institute.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Mrs. McLeod,

May I ask for your help? On July 28th I wrote to a Mr. C. E. Stovall of Arlington, Texas, about his $16.45 check which was returned to us marked "insufficient funds". I sent a copy of the letter to your office.

To date I have had no word from Mr. Stovall with a replacement check. As you know, Yokefellow Institute, is very dependent upon contributions from friends for a good part of our operating fund and even a small amount like $16.45 can cause us problems. Would you have any suggestion as what I should do to get this amount from Mr. Stovall. I will certainly appreciate your help.

I might mention that we enjoyed having John Allen Chalk and this group of men - they all seemed to be so excited about the program - it was very heartening for all of us to be in the midst of this amount of enthusiasm.

Sincerely,

Helen L. Liebert (Mrs.)
Secretary
