Mr. Reuel Lemmons
Firm Foundation
P. O. Box 610
Austin, Texas

Dear brother Lemmons:

I have just finished reading a very perceptive article by R. Nelson Bell in the September 3, 1969 Presbyterian Journal. You may read this journal regularly. If you do not have the September 3 copy, however, I want not only to call attention to Bell's article but also to enclose a copy of it for you.

Except for the section about the Westminster Confession which is an obvious contradiction of everything else he says in this article, it is the kind of thing that I would like to see you publish in the Firm Foundation. An editorial note regarding this article and its significance can make it one that might stir our brethren to the kind of concern you have been urging them to in recent months.

Do with it what you will. I simply wanted to call it to your attention.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
