Dear Norvel:

Thank you for inquiring about remunerations for expenses on 20th Century Christian editorial activities. I have received $300 from you, representing 6 different issues. According to my records, I have worked on that many issues. There might have been some question about the slight amount of work I did on the Madison story, but this represents full satisfactory assistance for me.

I look forward to getting to the West Coast sometime between now and the end of the year. I hope to visit at length with you regarding future plans for 20th CC. To work with it is exciting and challenging.

I send you my prayers and best wishes for a good school year at Pepperdine. Congratulations on the record enrollment this fall.

Fraternally,

John Allen Chalk
