Mr. John R. Joe, Jr.
P. O. Box 451
Monrovia, Liberia

Dear Mr. Joe:

I deeply regret that I have just now discovered your letter of May 19 in which you enclosed your answers to Lesson #2 in our Bible Correspondence Course. I have sent your lesson on to the proper people for grading and you will be receiving it from them in the very near future.

Immediately after returning from Liberia, I found my schedule so full that I was unable to take care of the papers and letters that had been handed to me during my visit to me in your country. Your letter was one of those that I have not opened until today. Please excuse this tardiness. I hope that you have not become discouraged in this time period and will be anxious to continue your efforts with Lesson #3.

It was a pleasure being in your country and a special pleasure meeting you. Let me encourage you to continue doing your Bible study.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
