Mr. Jerry Smith
Church of Christ
669 South Hill Street
Griffin, Georgia 30223

Dear Jerry:

Thank you for your thoughtful card received here on August 4. It was a delight to hear from you and to be reminded of the many wonderful associations I have experienced with members of the Griffin congregation. Please give my regards to all of them.

I pray that Evans McMullan and his family are in good health and enjoying full blessing of God on their ministry there. I have passed your card on to Art Haddox. He has just returned from France and Spain on another missionary tour. Our work in both of those places seem to be making great progress.

Our family was sorely disappointed not getting to move to Georgia. We do believe, however, that it was God's will for us to remain here and we ask you to remember us to Him for his special blessing on our ministry here. We will be praying for you and for the Griffin congregation, also.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
