Dear Dr. Trueblood:

I have just noticed on my calendar a notation about the Writer's Conference that you and Charlie Shedd will be conducting at Montreat, North Carolina next month. I have been unable to get details about this conference and I wonder if you could send me some information about it, or the name of some one who can give me that information.

I want to attend the conference if at all possible. I am not sure as to who is invited or to whether I might be a qualified participant. Your assistance in this matter will be appreciated.

I continue to get positive feedback on our retreat at the Yokefellow Institute in June. Your two hour visit with our men after dinner was the most stimulating experience of the two days. We thoroughly enjoyed our stay at the Institute and found God working in new and beautiful ways in all our lives.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
