Dear Carol and Bud:

Thanks for being so patient and understanding of our "housing plight" this past week-end. Sue and I were helped by your calm and measured counsel which always came at the right time.

We look forward to many times of fellowship, devotion, and service in the days ahead. Your own faith and honesty are a healthy stimulus to ours. Thank you for being yourselves as directed by God's Spirit.

Our housing problem is settled, if somewhat expensively. We couldn't bring ourselves to plunge into the apartment management business, especially with no previous experience. Nor would be bring ourselves to the "plunge" of house buying. Sorry we won't be "immediate" neighbors.

Thank you for your help,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
