Dear Mr. Graham:

Thank you so much for your letter of October 10. I have consulted the scriptures included in your letter and believe them with all my heart. They speak of the redemptive work of Jesus Christ, that not only personally delivers individuals from sin, but also has defeated the whole host of evil powers. You could have mentioned many others in addition to the ones you included.

Thank you so much for calling these scriptures to my attention. I have long believed and preached them.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Brother Chalk:

Yours of the 2nd was promptly received, and I thank you for same. Herewith I enclose some Scriptural notation, in part, regarding to hell. I presume that there are many more in the New Testament, but at my age I can't do all the reading I'd like to do. Even so, I dare say that there is not a Minister in my county who reads the Bible as much as I do..

I kindly ask you to read the said set-up scriptures over, and see if there's not a terrible force in same, that changes some former thoughts. I wish I could fully express myself, but at my age, and not feeling too good, I will have to leave it off, and let your wonderful mind delve deep, and solve the problem. Kindly let me hear from you.

Most sincerely,
