Dear Steve:

Your thoughtful note was a real inspiration. Thank you for taking the time to write and for making such encouraging remarks.

I don't know why I feel such a closeness to those of you at the University of Texas. I always enjoy being with you. I didn't know at the time I was there why things went so well, at least for me personally. When I got back here, my secretary told me of a group here in the building at Highland who prayed specifically for our Thursday night meeting. It was a beautiful answer to prayer, in so far as my personal anxieties about the meeting were concerned.

I hope to see you again before the school year is over.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen -

This is just a note to express my personal appreciation for the presentation you made in Austin Thursday last. Your remarks were timely and penetrating.

But John Allen, I've got to be appreciative for more than the "word" you brought. I am thankful for your life in Christ (more than I can say).

May God increase your power to battle the adversary - wherever you find him - I participate in your ministry - in spirit at least.

Keep the baby, Faith.
