Professor Thomas B. Ken
University of Liberia
Monrovia, Liberia

Dear Professor Ken:

Thank you so much for the meaningful visit I enjoyed with you during my trip to Liberia this summer. Unfortunately, a tight schedule has prevented my writing before now. I have just asked my book supplier to send you the promised copy of Peter Berger's A Rumor of Angels.

As a sociologist, you will find Berger's insights extremely enlightening. As a spiritually sensitive sociologist, I think you will welcome ^{Berger's} attempts to show how a transcendent faith is required by meaningful insight into man's life.

Thank you again for your warm reception, both at the University and the conversation with you at the Cultural Center. I send you my best personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
