Dear Opal:

I was thrilled at the report of what happened at Virgie. The Lord has certainly used you mightily in bringing about a great effort there. I am thrilled to know of brother Gill's work. He is a good man and simply needed the encouragement you and others could give.

Please remember me daily in your prayers. The work here demands more of me than I have ever had to give before. The knowledge of your prayers are a great comfort. I send you and John my love and prayers.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Hi! Billy, can't wait it? It was part of floating around in a box here, and you are "it" - Ha!

I won't let another day go by without telling you of our work for the Lord in Virginia, Ky. (Pike County);

a truck full of clothes went ahead of the workers by a few days. There was nine of us who worked you come down mid we one day, found it as int

stayed the rest of the week 11 responses. Our Lord

You're my kind of the bigger part of these 16 thru 19 yrs. Boys & girls Bill's preaching was say would have been plenty & arranged the classes.

Why hide it?

ick so hard, each one took,
